KOOL IT

LEGALIZE POP

Okay, so maybe Winter is slowly surrounding YOUR neighborhood (assuming you don't live on a South Seas Island) but, here, on the SURFTOONS shoreline, the weather continues hot, clear and groovy to the degree of being undeniably Summer-ish since this imaginary beach cannot be affected by climate or the ordinary elements. In fact, about the only thing that CAN affect it is your opinion of what this beach needs or how you feel regarding what it already offers. Don't be shy: scribble up a storm and let's hear from you. Uncomplimentary notes don't go straight into the wastebasket. Honest. First, we read them — and THEN they hit the interior of the Circular File. Sugary notes get even swifter treatment. We discovered they attract ants if left lying around. Your best bet is a nice, honest & nurdish note conveying everything from the top of your pointed little head to the bottom of your rotten little heart. We're STILL laying good coins on gifted letterwriters, so if you dig swag — read the following thingies, then go & do likewise . . .

1ST-PRIZE WINNER ($15.00)

Although I'm about as Hodaddy as a person can get (I can't even swim well), I've developed quite an interest in surfing. My interest in this sport of sports started when I read SURFTOONS #1. I've managed to get every issue since then. Try not to put the magazine out too regularly or I may be forced to seek employment in order to keep getting SURFTOONS everytime.

RICHARD BUCKO
435 Brock Street
Sudbury, Ontario, Canada

Anybody who has collected EVERY issue since #1 and would bravely risk employment in order to stay up with us is OUR kinda people!

2ND-PRIZE WINNER ($10.00)

I can't believe it! Are you guys for REAL? It was a Happening when I came across your Zowie Mag! I think Dennis Ellefson is the grooviest! To tell the truth, I've never actually made the surfing scene in my life because the Males in Michigan (yes, we DO surf here!) mostly dig the Femmy Type so we leave surfing to the guys. But this isn't to say we're not in the surfin' bag! We LUV it! I dig the KOOL IT! section and also the penpal kick. In fact, I'd love to hear from some of you groovy Beachniks! I dig the longhair set and I rave-out for Folk Rock played throbbingly by Bob Dylan and Donovan (my particular Faves). By the by, I'm 16, Blonde and anxiously awaiting to hear from YOU, whomever you are! Be a Luv and answer my plea!

BECKY NIEMI
R.R. #1 — West
Newberry, Michigan 49868

Wild little note, Sweetz and congrats. You'll be awash with replies very soon now.

3RD-PRIZE WINNER ($5.00)

The only reason I'm bothering to write is I hope to bring it to the attention of you Authorities that a very cruel practice is taking place almost every minute of the day on beaches: Careless beachbums are stepping upon helpless clams! Pretty horrible, huh? Let's see if we cannot put a stop to this unnecessary and senseless molestation of mollusks.

RODNEY THOMAS
Apt. #1
866 Gallatin
Santa Clara, California 95051

Now THERE'S a Real Human Being!

I'm just dying to get in on the surfing scene but, unfortunately, there is no place near here to go surfing. I'd love to have a guy (or gal) be my pen-pusher and clue me to the hippiest action going! I'm 17, and I also dig Stock Car Races.

DIANE HOWLETT
919 Forhan Street
Wallaceburg, Ontario, Canada

Okay, somebody get busy & wire this doll in to Where It's At.

"Guess what, Mom? I'm going STEADY!"

That's a fab-idea you have about a penpal section in your magazine. I get stoked over your fab cartoons and fotos. I got no bones to pick with the West Coast surfers: you got most of the best surf. But if any of you ever get out this way, look me up and I'll take you to the groove-spots. Like to hear from guys and gals.

ALAN FLEMING
46 Cobalt Lane
Westbury, New York 11590

An Eastern surfer with NO bone to pick? Man, are you a rarity! Everybody write this guy, telling him how KEEN he is.

I hooked my eyeballs onto your July issue and my li'l old brain clicked up thoughts of Wild & Boss; but when I hinged my paws on your September issue, I just set back on my haunches and decided to write and kompliment you and your employees on the tuffest mag I've ever land my bloodshot eyes over. Your penpal notion is a brain-Tornado. Yeah, and I hope to hear from some cutes broads in the 13-years range. GO, you cuties!

BILLY McDANIEL
1501 West 3rd Street
Owensboro, Kentucky 42301

Keep them eyeballs open and ready for action, Babes.

Around here, SURFTOONS is practically the Bible of everybody who owns a stick or even those who just mess around on the beach and wish they owned a board so they could get with the action on the waves. My copies of your mag get tattered in no time at all by buddies (and their broads) who can't wait to see what's new in SURFTOONS. How about sending a free copy for a guy who's been helping you out by loaning his own copies to others, thereby building many more fans for your really hip publication? Don't you think I deserve a free copy or two, at least, man?

PETE MARTINIO
Tampa, Florida

Sure do, but you didn't include your street address.

My brother and I really like SURFTOONS, and we wish we could get it oftener. I'd like to hear from some 12-year-old penpals.

ROBERT BLASE
1523 North Pacific Avenue
Gendale, California 91202

You'll hear from 'em, Old Buddy.

Greetings! Salutations! Hi! Got hold of one of your mags and, boy, is it BOSS! It's the biggest thing since Mickey Mouse sweatshirts Anyway, I need HELP. I moved away from the waves and I'm real lonely for the surf. If there are any surf-lovin' Bunnies who would like to write and reassure me that the ocean's still there — PLEASE DO! I'm 19.

ROB BREEZE
432 East 14th Street
Lockport, Illinois 60441

That's a cool line, man.

SURFTOONS IS A GRROOOVE! I've been wanting to write since last summer but inbetween working, I've been too busy surfing to get anything on paper! If anyone out there (in the Woodland Hills area) is a loose drummer and wants to join a band — please write to me, huh?

RYANNE HARRISON
22819 Mulholland Drive
Woodland Hills, California 91364

You're a girl-bandleader? That's wild!

Have just finished reading the last issue of SURFTOONS. It was fantastic as usual, of course! Being as everybody's siding up with their favorite artist, I now put my vote in for Madcap Mike Dormer. Wake Up, America! To all readers: Maybe if we all chip in and bought our fave-staff a load of vitamins they might get the hint and work a little harder so we could get our groovy mag once each High Noon. Surf's up, gotta split. It's 200-miles away, that's why.

DAN MAULDIN
Rt. #1, Box 390
Nevada City, California 95959

You dig Dormer's stuff, huh? So does Dormer. Now the two of you can lose your minds and form a Fan Club.

This new artist, J. B. Talmadge, is really just about the wildest talent I've ever seen in a long, long time. Maybe it's just my girlish intuition but I'll bet he's a young guy — because he seems to be right on top of today's humor, and to know it he would HAVE to be about 20 or 22. Am I right? I'll bet he's good looking, too. Right? Why don't you print a photo of him so I can tell if my guessing is any good. No kidding, his drawing-style really is catching a lot of attention among my friends — and we watch SURFTOONS because it has the most modern humor going for it that any magazine on the stands offers. Talmadge is beautiful!

KAREN SUE BROWN
Berkeley, California

Okay, Toots, here's a shot of The Talmadge (far left) taken during a recent Surfari. Does he meet with your girlish dreams and all? You're wrong about his age: he's only 72. Fulltime freelance cartooning ages guys like everything.

One of the things I dig most about SURFTOONS is the fact that you don't depend upon a lot of photos showing sexy girls in order to entertain your readers. There's just nothing more sickening than girls who wear skimpy bikinis on public beaches. They probably think everybody is admiring them but if they really knew what the boys are thinking – they'd be too ashamed to ever show their stupid faces in public after making cheap spectacles of themselves. I've been taught that if she wants to be respected, a girl must behave and look like a lady – even when she goes to the beach. And don't try to tell me that girls can't buy bathing suits that indicate proper modesty because I own three suits like that, and they're still being sold in many stores. Please don't print my full address. I don't want a lot of sick letters from boys or arguments from a bunch of cheap girls who want to defend themselves. Keep SURFTOONS as nice as it's been and I'll buy every issue that comes out.

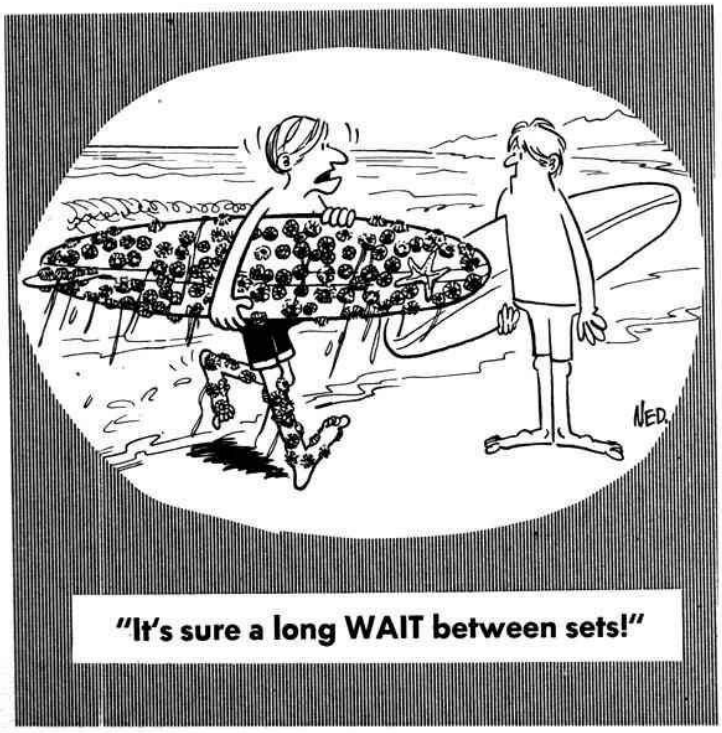
ALICE BERNE
Galveston, Texas

Kinda prudish, ain'tcha, Sweetz? Or, maybe, you just aren't equipped to look as fetching in a bikini as some of the other dolls?

Just picked up the September issue. It's my third, but on THIS one I was really stoked. I mean, it's GOT to be the MOST! What I really dug was that feature, "Surfers' Horoscope" by Talmadge! I'm a Pisces but I still dug it. I figured that if I went around, with a copy of your mag in my hand, long enough (sort of a Good Luck charm) I'd meet some girls – and I finally did! But how much popularity can anyone expect when they have a green mouth from chomping on kelp? I'm only 13 but I'm wild for the surfing scene even though I've never actually been on a stick yet.

MARK WHAN
1185 Dresden Way
San Jose, California 95129

Better start modestly with a skimboard and work your way up to the regular boards by degrees.



"It's sure a long WAIT between sets!"

Tell your "loyal relative" (Sam Decker) that if the West Is Best, why didn't I see any of those surfnuts actually surfing? All I saw were Jeep-nuts pulling some nurds without any smarts out of the old sand. My brother is always teasing me about not knowing anything about cars. In case you haven't guessed, I'm a girl-type. You guys out there about 13 to 15 (especially guys named Randy or Terry), how about writing to me and helping me to learn more about what's with cars and all?

SHERRY SCHULTZ
RR #1
Elizabethtown, Indiana 47232

What are you gonna do if a lot of surfers named Mike or Nick or Fred or John write to you, telling you what's with the sandy scene, Toots?

Somewhere in this big country there must be a few witty, interesting girl-types who would like to send notes to a beachbum like me. I'd sure like to hear from beachbunnies around 12 or 13 – especially if they live inland and don't get to hit the beach too often. I'm also a model-car builder and I dig all kinds of things like R & R music, social talk and other stuff. Can you put this note in the next issue of SURFTOONS, dad?

MATT KOHLER
Box 4325
Glendale, California 91202

I suppose YOU think you've got some special pull just because we're related, huh?

I sure do thank you tuff, gear, fab people who print SURFTOONS for the bread you sent to me for my little scribbling work. Let me tell you, it was just too much – getting that nice, fat check – and it was just too great for words seeing my note in print. Keep up the cool work because all of little old me really LUVS the magazine.

KATHY MOORE
526 Vaughan
Sequin, Texas

You're welcome, Sweetz.

I do my surfing down to Cape Hatteras, and down there a guy has to FIGHT to get one of your rags – SURFTOONS is so popular. Practically gone off the newsstands the same day they appear. I'm scribbling these few words to let you know I agree with Penny, Virginia and anybody else in favor of this penpal thingie. It'll improve your mag 100%. Any girls reading this who are ready for a 16-year old surfer with brunette coloring who digs the beach and loves to exchange ideas by mail – drop me a line. Would like to hear from dolls in the 13-17 range, if possible. That Ted Wallace ought to bury himself in sand up to his neck and wait for crabs to come along and chew-off his mouth: he's giving us Eastern surfers a bad name and making us look bad because a lot of buys will think his attitude is typically Eastern.

JOHN GILLIKIN
Box 274
Buxton, North Carolina 27920

Naw, we know a Troublemaker when we hear one, man.

"HELP! I think I'm gonna drown!"

I have a complaint about your rag. You guys are giving us surfers a bad name. You give everybody the impression that us surfers wear Iron Crosses, that we worship surf-gods and all kinds of similar junk. Surfing doesn't have anything to do with stuff like that. We LIKE surfing and we think the simple truth ought to be told, so if you wanna stay popular with us surfers you better print THIS letter, man.

MIKE LOYLOR
Rt. #5
Pittsbury, Texas 75686

I dunno — you don't SOUND like a surfer, kid.

Hi, surfer thingies! Stuck my surfboard in a cement crack long enough to scribble down a few words to all you surf-types. Hey, Carl, do me a giant-like favor: stuff a buncha SURFTOONS on the mag-shelf every 30days so's us lonely-type guys can take a peek-see at the surfin' world. Don't mind the writing because I'm doing it with my big toe. Well, gotta fly away now because my wings are getting rusty. See you next issue, man.

CRAIG KEIL
2218 Milbourne
Flint, Michigan 48504

Not if I see you first, flapping toward me with those (Ugh!) rusty wings.

Whoever gave Virginia Baggott the information that there was no surf on Lake Michigan was certainly mistaken. I am a member of the Dunes Beach Surf Club, and 22-other-members and myself stand in agreement that there most certainly IS surf on Lake Michigan, even though it is not as consistent as it is on the coast. Anyone interested may write:

KEITH ADAMS
1636 Greenwood
Waukegan, Illinois 60085

Well, YOU oughta know, man.

I just finished reading your COOL mag and it's OUTA SIGHT! You tell those cartoonies that they're really good! Please try to include my note in the next, wild issue. It will be a real privilege to see it in there, man.

CANDEE HOAG
1002 7th Street
Calexico, California

Regard yourself as like included, Sweetz.

SURFTOONS is really groovy. Only one thing bugs me: I'd like to see more of that cute swinger, Sandab McSkegg in each issue. He's really trippy. Keep up the cool-cool-cool job!

LINDA CROSS
325 East Granada
Ontario, California 91762

We'll THINK about it.

Hey, Kohler, how about seeing a foto of what YOU look like? Unk Bonestell has pictures of himself in CARtoons, and Pappy Lemmons has pictures of himself in HOT ROD CARTOONS but you never put any pictures of yourself in SURFTOONS. No fair. Are you afraid to let the readers see how UGLY you are, man?

CHARLES GREENE
Reno, Nevada

Okay, here's a picture of Yours Truly (on the right) chatting with Ricky Nelson on the MALIBU U location. Movie Star Nelson and I are so unspeakably handsome you MAY have trouble telling us apart unless you squint real hard. Seriously, you're the first one to ask what I look like. I may send you free copies of SURFTOONS for the rest of your natural life, kiddo.

OBSERVE ADOPT-A-STICKBUM WEEK

. . . and there we are for another time around. Hope to hear from YOU soon. Trust THIS issue grabs your funnybone and keeps you happily hung-up on our brand of suntanned madness. See you.

Uncivil Servants

a Psycholocical Survey of illocical Lifeguards

By Talmadge

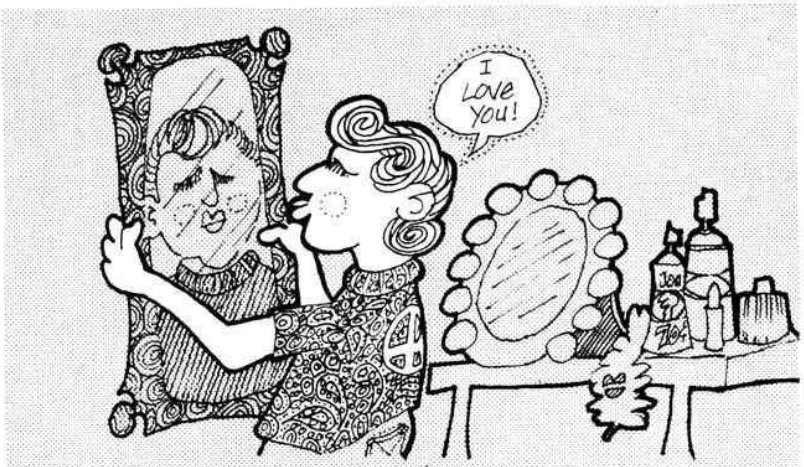
ANTI-SURFER ANXIETY -- THIS UNCOOL TYPE IS USUALLY A FORMER CITY-PARK-WADING-POOL-WATCHER WHO IS OUT TO PROTECT ALL TH' INNOCENT SAND-SETTLERS FROM TH' TERRIBLE WRATH OF TH' BOARD-BULLIES! YOU'LL FIND HIS KIND ONLY IN THE BEST SURFING SPOTS.

HIGH LIFEGUARD-STAND PHOBIA THAT GUY YOU THINK IS SO DEDICATED 'CAUSE HE'S SPENT THE LAST 134 1/2 DAYS AN' NIGHTS PERCHED IN HIS TOWER, IS ACTUALLY TERRIFIED OF HEIGHTS. HE GETS DIZZY WEARING ELEVATOR SHOES. SURF'S GOTTA BE "DOWN" BEFORE HE'LL STEP IN!

SEAWEED PHOBIA TYPE -- THINKS KELP IS SWIMMERS' MORTAL ENAMY, AN' WON'T ENTER TH' SOUP WITHOUT A TANK OF D.D.T. AND HEDGE CLIPPERS. YOU MIGHT AS WELL FORGET TH' RESCUE BIT. THEY ARE ONLY OUT TO RID THE WORLD OF THIS SALTY BEAST.

BULGING BICEPS BAG -- THEY GOT MUSCLES IN THEIR EAR LOBES. THEY'RE BUILT LIKE A KOMPACT KING KONG! ONE MINOR DETAIL THESE SUPER-SURFERS OVERLOOKED ... THEY CAN'T SWIM. THEIR RESCUE EQUIPMENT INCLUDES A 4-PLY FOAM-RUBBER WET SUIT, WATER WINGS, INFLATABLE RAFT, AND A RED CROSS NURSE!

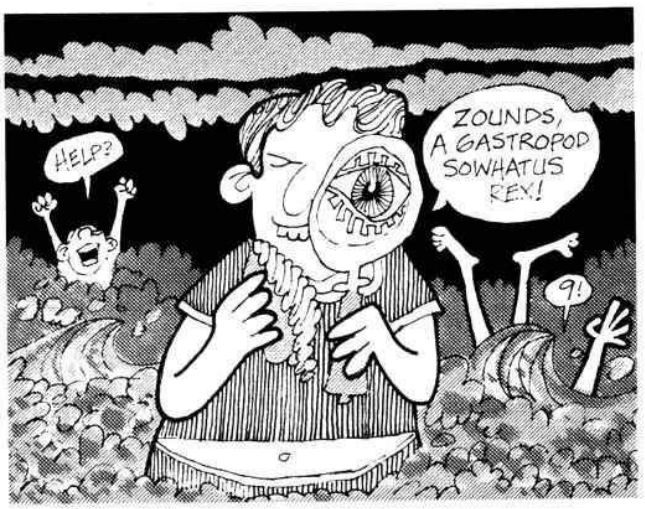
SAND-IN-EARS COMPLEX-- THESE WATER-WATCHERS DON'T MIND SAND BETWEEN THEIR TOES OR IN THEIR SILVER WHISTLES, BUT THEY LIVE IN FEAR OF PICKIN' GRAINS OUTTA THEIR EARS. THEY USUALLY BUILD CEMENT RAMPS RIGHT DOWN TO TH' SOUP 'AN WEAR EAR-PLUGS.



"PASS ME TH' HAIRSPRAY" HANG-UP-- THIS TYPE OF GUY (?) GOES FOR THE GOOD GROOMIN' GIG. IN FACT, HE WON'T TOUCH THE WET STUFF WITHOUT A BATHING CAP AND A NOTE FROM HIS BEAUTICIAN. HE SPENDS A GOOD PORTION OF HIS TIME KEEPING A SHARP LOOKOUT... IN HIS FULL-LENGTH MIRROR!

"WATER'S FOR GROWIN' FLOWERS" GIG -- THESE GUYS COME ON WITH TH' "IF GOD HAD MEANT FOR US TO SWIM, HE'D A GIVIN US FINS" BIT. THE FACT IS, THEY'RE SCARED SALTLESS OF TH' SOUP. THEY GOT THEIR LIFEGUARD PATCH FROM A WAR SURPLUS STORE.

"MY NOSE WILL GET BURNT" COMPLEX-- YOU'LL RECOGNIZE THIS TYPE: THEY GOT WHITE CREAM ALL OVER THEIR NOSE, WEAR BOBBY KNOOP" BASEBALL CAPS AND SIT UNDER RED AND GREEN UMBRELLAS. BE CAREFULL SURFING IN THEIR AREA-- THEY ONLY SAVE PEOPLE BETWEEN 8:30 AN' 9:00 P.M.



TIDEPOOL FIXATION-- THESE FOAM-FISHERS ARE FRUSTRATED MARINE BIOLOGISTS WHO SPEND ALL THEIR TIME COLLECTING SHELLS INSTEAD OF PEOPLE. YOU'D BETTER DISGUISE YOURSELF AS A SEA ANEMONE IF YOU WANT THEIR ATTENTION.

GIRL-GAZING MANIA-- THESE SOUP-SIFTERS HAVN'T TURNED THEIR EYEBALLS OCEAN-SIDE FOR MANY MOONS. THEY SPEND ALL THEIR MINUTES VIEWING THE WAHINI THROUGH ONE-WAY SUNGOGGLES. DON'T COUNT ON THEIR AID UNLESS YOU ARE A BLOND FEMALE TYPE: 38-24-36.

Tales of FRED

BY TERRY GILLIAM

WHO IS THIS FRED WHO APPEARS TO BE JUST ANOTHER OLD BEACH BUM HANGING AROUND THE BEACH? WHAT IS HE UP TO? WHY IS HE THERE? WHO CARES?

CAPSULE HISTORY

FRED THE BEACHBUM WHO IS - IN REALITY - FRED THE BEACHBUM, FIRST BECAME AWARE THAT THIS COUNTRY WAS IN DANGER WHEN HE WAS 40.

HE DISCOVERED HE WAS GETTING WEAKER, FATTER, THAT HE WAS LOSING HIS HAIR.

HE NOTICED HIS FRIENDS WERE TOO.

IT DIDN'T TAKE LONG TO PUT 2 AND 2 TOGETHER AND REALIZE IT WAS A FIENDISH PLOT TO OVERTHROW THE COUNTRY.

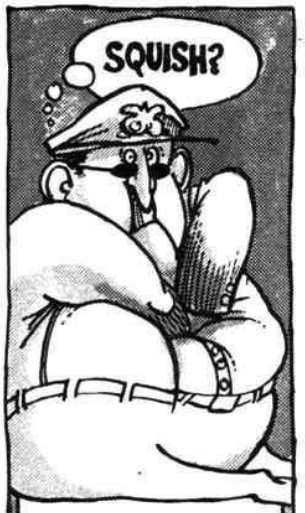
THERE WERE, QUITE CLEARLY, EVIL FORCES AT WORK REDUCING THE PRIDE OF THE NATION'S MANHOOD (FRED AND FRIENDS) TO OLD GRANNY FOLK.

IN ANOTHER 30 YEARS THEY WOULD BE CONFINED TO WHEELCHAIRS— PUSH-OVERS FOR WHENEVER THE FIENDS DECIDED TO INVADE.

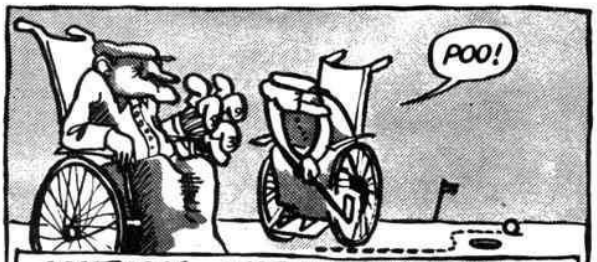
FRED KNEW IT WAS UP TO HIM.

HE QUIT HIS JOB AT THE U.S. POST OFFICE.

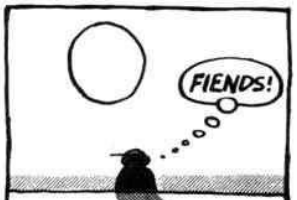
HOCKED HIS U.S. POSTAL EMPLOYEE'S UNIFORM AND MOVED TO THE OBVIOUS POINT OF INVASION — THE BEACH.



FRED DISCOVERS PLOT!



NATION WEAKENED!!!!!



LONELY SENTINEL.

THERE HE SITS TODAY — A LONELY SENTINEL.....

AND NOW— FOR TODAY'S ADVENTURE.
